

Driving Workshop and Certification

The workshop will prepare participants for PATH International driving instructor certification and will include in-depth instruction, lecture and demonstration.

The fee for the workshop is $375 per person. Workshop runs from August 7-9, 2012.

During the workshop, faculty will walk you through the basics of becoming a Driving Instructor:

Driving – Driving demos and hands-on practice will be performed with the faculty with rein and whip handling, ground driving, harnessing and putting-to demonstrations.

Instruction – What are the qualities of a good Driving Instructor? Come prepared to learn a variety of activities to promote driving, creativity in lesson planning, skill progression, structure of a lesson plan, etc.

Driving Equipment – Review of the many styles of harnesses, bits, whips, and carriages plus various types of adaptive driving equipment.

Horses – Training and selection of the driving horse will be discussed in addition to conformation and temperament. Examples of various therapeutic driving animals will be available.

The certification will follow the workshop.

The fee for the workshop is $500 per person. Certification runs from August 10-11, 2012.
